A. Korten left Wednesday morning for Chicago after spending several weeks looking after big farm near this city. He went to the railroad in company with Mr. Hanley in his auto.

O. Stevenson, of Forest Cove, state game warden, spent few days in this section this week attending to his official duties. He left this morning in little Reo auto for Lakeview en route to Crater Lake, Lamath Falls and other points in Southern Oregon.

R. C. Howard has rented the Korten farm four miles east of Burns and has arranged with Mr. Korten to make some extensive improvement on the place and next season will likely almost the entire section in crops. Mr. Howard has a large family of boys and is a practical farmer.

Lost, strayed or stolen from my place on Little Stenchen Water during the summer of 1909, one bay yearling colt, one black yearling filly, both branded an anchor R connected, the anchor being horizontal, on right stifle.
Will pay a liberal reward for their return to me or for information that will lead to their recovery.

Mason Smith and wife left Wednesday in company with Tart Smith for the railroad.
They will go immediately to Corvallis where Mason will take up his duties in the postal service.
Tart took them to Dixie and was returned to Canyon where he will be married next Wednesday to Miss Vivian Cozad. The young people will come to this city at once where they will reside. Their friends will be glad to welcome them.

Arthur Witney came down from their Spring Creek ranch last Saturday quite ill. He was very sick Sunday but is improving at this time.

Schenk Bros. do not have to send your suit back to a Philadelphia lawyer for alteration.
They are tailors and can do it themselves.

P. G. Smith started Sunday with about 100 head of young draft horses that he will dispose of in the farming districts of Umatilla county.

Mrs. Thos. Howard, one of the old time lovely pioneer ladies of this section, was over from her home near Drewsey the first of the week on land business. She was accompanied by Mrs. August Miller another pioneer who is noted for her hospitality, and A. I. Johnson.

Regular preaching services at the Baptist church tomorrow morning and evening. There will also be baptizing at the flour mill in the afternoon at 3:30.

Messrs. Hyde & Begg came down from the line kiln yesterday bringing a load of the first lime burned at the new location.
It is of exceptional quality and will be of much benefit to the building trade in this section.

You may look and you may listen, but you will eventually call on Irving Miller and take advantage of some of his bargains in real estate. Also the man wishing to sell can not do better than to list with him. Room 6, Odd Fellow building.

Mrs. Julian Byrd took her departure Monday morning for a short visit to outside points. She will attend the O. E. S. grand lodge and take in the rose festival in Portland and visit relatives and friends in Willamette Valley as well as a trip to Tacoma and Seattle.
